

DAVIE COUNTY EXTENSION COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION
SCHOLARSHIP FOR HIGHER EDUCATION

The members of the Davie County Extension Community Association (ECA) will present one $750. higher education scholarship to a Davie County Graduate who needs financial aid to enable them to continue their education at a higher education institution. Awarding of this scholarship will be based on financial need, determination, and scholastic ability. Preference will be given to students entering a family life, agricultural, or health related field.

The $750. will be paid directly to the College or Technical School of the students' choice to be applied toward tuition and books. This $750. will be available solely for the furtherance of the students' education, and not transferable for any other purpose. If not used in its entirety by the recipient, the College or Technical School shall refund any unused balance to: Davie County ECA Treasurer, 340 Richie Rd., Mocksville, NC 27028.

All required information shall be confidential, and will only be used as a means of awarding this scholarship. Applications will be available in the Davie High Guidance office, Davie Early College, and the N.C. Cooperative Extension Office. All completed applications along with a transcript of their grades must be returned to: Ms. Jeanne Gilbreath, 495 Eatons Church Rd., Mocksville NC 27028 no later than Friday, March 31, 2023.

An appointed committee of three (3) ECA members will review all applications and may require an interview. Recipient will be announced at your School Awards Night and will be expected to attend an ECA Meeting this spring to be introduced to Davie ECA members.
